

LECTURING SKILLS IN ENGLISH

The course is suitable for university and college lecturers who are not native speakers but who increasingly need to use English as the language of instruction. This 1-week intensive course provides lecturers with a range of practical techniques which are applicable across multiple disciplines.

COURSE CONTENT

The course provides substantial practice opportunities which include giving mini-lectures and leading seminars and tutorials. The key language skills and communication strategies you will learn in the course include:

- ways of emphasising, highlighting and hedging
- eliciting techniques, dealing with questions and responding to student evaluation
- encouraging and giving feedback when interacting with students
- a focus on levels of formality in spoken English

BENEFITS

By the end of the course you will be able to:

- manage work situations more confidently and successfully
- enhanced understanding of different learning styles
- socialise and network more confidently
- work more effectively in a cross-cultural environment
- use an increased active vocabulary
- increased clarity in delivery
- speak with greater confidence, fluency and accuracy

FACTS

- maximum group size: 8
- required minimum level: B2
- requirements: participants must have relevant experience

KEY FACTS

- intensive programmes
- participants must have relevant experience